Miss Helen Taft and Mr. Robert Taft arrived at Paramatta, Beverly, Mass., and joined the President and Mrs. Taft yesterday morning. The President played golf all the morning with Mr. John Hays Hammond, and took an auto ride in the afternoon, to Hamilton, Mass., to call upon the Secretary of the Navy, who is improving after his illness of typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Knox will leave here shortly for the summer which they will spend with the latter's parents, Gen. and Mrs. Anson McCook, who are opening their bungalow in the White Mountains.

Gen. W. L. Marshall left a few days ago for an inspection trip in the West. Mrs. Marshall will close their house on Monday and be joined by Miss Matland Marshall and go to the Monterey, Blue Ridge Summit, in the Blue Ridge Mountains. Miss Marshall has been visiting on Staten Island and at West Point for a month or more. Mr. Marshall returned a few days ago from a fortnight's visit in the country.

Mrs. Brewster, wife of Capt. Andre W. Brewster, U. S. A., is in Detroit visiting her sister, Mrs. E. C. Walker, of Walker, Minn., a suburb. Miss Henry M. Campbell entertained at a luncheon in her honor a few days ago at the Country Club.

A symphony concert was given in the Kursaal at Lucerne as a Fourth of July celebration in honor of Mrs. Henry S. Boutell, wife of the American Minister to Switzerland. There were sixty players under the direction of Louis Lombard, of New York and Trevano Castle, and they gave a programme exclusively of American compositions. They were Henry Hadley's "The Cyprian Play," Arthur Foote's "Praeludium," opus 33, Louis Lombard's "Suite de l'Opera, Errinoline," and three of Edward A. MacDowell's compositions—"In a Haunted Forest," "Summer Idyll," and "In October."

Mrs. John P. Jackson and her brother, Mr. Elliot Gregory, will join the Swedish Minister and Mme. Ekengren at Bar Harbor the first of next week, coming from Europe.

Mrs. Charles E. Edwards has returned to Washington after a stay of several months at her old home in Texas, where she went because of the serious illness and subsequent death of her father. Her mother has returned with her to make her permanent home.

Miss Catherine Cameron, well-known in Washington and New York society, daughter of the late Sir Roderick Cameron, is said to have entirely recovered from the effects of an operation at the Episcopal Eye, Ear, and Throat Hospital. She has joined her sister, Miss Margaret Cameron at their Long Island home.

Mr. Clarence B. Rheem went to Atlantic City to spend the Fourth of July with Mrs. Rheem and their son, Mr. Edmund Rheem, who are at the Chalfonte for the season. Mr. Rheem will return here on Monday.

Gen. J. Porterfield Graves, of New York, who makes his home with his son, Col. John Temple Graves, is in Washington visiting another son, Maj. Harry T. Graves, Gen. Graves is a veteran of the civil war, and carries the record for age, as he is in his ninety-fourth year. He travels alone, and is a remarkably interesting, well-preserved gentleman of the old school.

The Minister from Nicaragua, Salvador Castillio, Jr., who accompanied Mme. Castillio to Rehoboth Beach, Del., recently, has returned to Washington.

CHOSEN DIRECTOR OF GENERAL FEDERATION.

MRS. WILLIAM E. ANDREWS.

Mrs. William E. Andrews, one of the foremost women's club workers in this city, has been elected a director of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at its convention in San Francisco.

Mrs. Andrews has long been identified with the work of Chapter B. P. E. O., which was admitted to the District Federation of Women's Clubs five years ago. She was elected first vice president of the District federation under the administration of Mrs. Pepper, and upon the latter's death served as acting president. After the expiration of Mrs. Pepper's term, Mrs. Andrews was elected president of the federation, to which position she was re-elected last May. She was also chosen delegate from the District to the biennial convention of the General Federation.

She has planned to visit friends in California and her mother in Colorado, and later expects to spend several days in Lincoln, Neb. She expects to return to Washington during August. The General Federation of Women's Clubs, in session at San Francisco yesterday, elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Pennybacker; first vice president, Mrs. R. L. Blankenburg; second vice president, Mrs. S. B. Sneath, Ohio; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry L. Keefe, Nebraska; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Eugene Kelly, North Carolina; treasurer, Mrs. John Thurgood, Oklahoma; auditor, Mrs. Charles H. McMahon, Utah. Besides Mrs. William E. Andrews the directors are Mrs. Francis D. Everett, Illinois; Mrs. Grace Julian Clark, Indiana; Mrs. Wright Matthews, Louisiana; Mrs. William P. Harper, Washington; Mrs. A. S. Christy, Montana; Mrs. Frank White, North Dakota; Mrs. Lucy White Williams, Michigan.

A Summer Comfort For Housekeepers.

—The DUPLEX— —Fireless Cooker

Reduces the cost of fuel. The money saved for fuel will pay for the cooker in a short time.

Makes cooking easy for the housekeeper, giving opportunity for other pursuits.

Kitchen odors are eliminated in cooking such articles as cabbage, onions, etc.

The toughest meat is made tender when cooked in the Duplex way.

There is no need of stirring—no fear of scorching or burning. Milk for the baby can be kept warm all night.

Dinner can be prepared in the cool of the morning. Breakfast may be placed in the stove in the evening.

Ideal for fishing and camping outfits.
